

Official Launch 2019

In This Issue . . .

Dr. Ben Graham, Senior Pastor Music City Baptist Church & President of Graham Family Films launches Faith-Based Initiative across the US.

Ben further states: “This is just the start of the collaboration and integration needed by all organizations to work together to assist people who are impacted by this terrible drug epidemic.”

Therefore, Ben is calling for the Faith-Based community to partner with him in this effort to collaborate and bring information and resources to families through our churches.

The Faith-Based initiative app provides information and resources to fight the drug epidemic impacting families across our country and launches on August 1st, 2019 in Tennessee and Utah.

Ben has been working in Washington DC with federal departments, talking with State officials and working in his local community to establish a means to collaborate and integrate a solid platform to communicate information and resources to individuals and families impacted by the drug epidemic across our country.

The church will be one of the focal points in the community where people can go to get help and find resources to deal with problems such as substance use disorder.

Dr Ben Graham launches the Faith-Based Initiative at his church in Tennessee.

Through his partnership with Jim Surprenant and Richard Fox, who are the founders of the Save a Life Project Foundation and co-chairs for the Addiction Policy Forum in Michigan, they were able to develop the platform for the Faith Based Initiative App, COPE Initiative app, and the Veterans app.

Federal, State and local governments can collaborate with churches through the app to provide funding opportunities and other resources to assist in counties throughout the United States.

Our President, Donald Trump on May 3, 2018, established by executive order the “White House Faith and Opportunity Initiative”.

- ❖ Arkansas (75 counties)
- ❖ Texas (254 counties)
- ❖ Missouri (114 counties)

The information and resources from nonprofits like the Addiction Policy Forum, Shatterproof, and federal agencies like Samhsa and the Veterans Administration help provide the important information and resources available on the app. My thanks go out to these organizations for providing information and resources about substance use disorders.

Official Launch

The Initiative states that: “The executive branch wants faith-based and community organizations, to the fullest opportunity by law, to compete on a level playing field for grants. Contracts, programs and other Federal funding opportunities.” Therefore, as the leader of the Faith-Based Initiative, I will collaborate with all agencies to assist our churches in receiving funding opportunities to help families in need in all 3,007 counties across our great nation. We must all work together to lift up each other and help fight the plight that is impacting our neighborhoods.

The below map of Michigan is an example of how each state will be broken down into counties.

Each State will appoint Regional Directors who will assist in appointing County Ambassadors to work in communities to distribute the Faith Based Initiative app. There can be many churches in each county that will have the designation of a County Ambassador. As stated throughout this newsletter, it will take the collaboration of churches, government organizations, businesses, nonprofit organizations and individuals working together to help communities fight this drug epidemic facing our country.

Therefore, the need for pastors to join the Faith Based Initiative is very important to accomplish our goal of distributing the app in each county across the United States.
